Gridiron Club Scholar/Athlete Scholarship

To all current Oregon City High School senior class scholar athletes:

The Gridiron club (Football Booster club) is proud to announce our first, of what we hope will be, annual Gridiron Club scholarship. We would like to assist two qualified student athletes or students that have participated in a school sanctioned activity that supports a sport, from Oregon City High School, as they pursue the next big step in life....College. We plan on awarding two students from Oregon City with a $1,000 scholarship to the accredited college or university of their choice. To be eligible for this scholarship, you must meet or exceed all of the below criteria.

- Participate in at least one sport or school sanctioned activity that supports a sport at OCHS (i.e. band, cheerleading, equipment manager, lacrosse).
- Have an accumulative GPA at or above 3.00
- Be on track to have the necessary credits needed to graduate on time.
- Must have attended OCHS for at least 2 full years.

- Provide a copy of your current transcript.
- Submit essay (500 words or less) detailing what extra curricular activities (i.e. community service/student council/year-book) you have participated in.
- Provide no less than 2 letters of recommendations from a teacher, coach, administrator, pastor, employer or counselor. NOTE: No more than one letter can be given by one of your coaches even if they are a teacher as well.

If you are interested in applying for this scholarship, please provide copies of documentation that support the above requirements as well as your letters of recommendation and your essay. Applications must be turned in no later than April 15th, 2011 to the counseling office. Good Luck!
